I. INTRODUCTION

The Secretary-General has the honour to submit to the General Assembly and to the Security Council the curricula vitae of the candidates nominated by national groups for the election of five judges of the International Court of Justice, which will take place during the fifty-fourth session of the General Assembly. A list of the candidates nominated for this election is contained in document A/54/307-S/1999/941. The composition of the Court and the voting procedures to be followed in the General Assembly and in the Security Council are set out in a memorandum by the Secretary-General (A/54/305-S/1999/939).

II. CURRICULA VITAE

AL-KHASAWNEH, Awn Shawkat

(Jordan)

[Original: English]

Awn Shawkat Al-Khasawneh was born in Amman on 22 February 1950 and received his primary and secondary education at the Islamic Educational College of Amman and his university education at Cambridge University (Queens' College) where he read history and law, and then did postgraduate work in international law. M.A. LL.M. (Cantab.).

He joined the Jordanian diplomatic service in 1975 and served as Second Secretary, then First Secretary at the Permanent Mission of Jordan to the United Nations in New York, 1976-1980. From 1980 to 1985, he worked in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs with special responsibility for international organizations and international law. In the years 1985-1990, he was Head of the Legal Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In 1990, he was seconded to the Royal Court where he worked as Legal Adviser to Crown Prince El-Hassan bin Talal. He was given the rank of Ambassador in 1992, and in 1995, he was appointed Adviser to the King and Adviser of the State on International Law with the rank of Minister, and Chief of the Royal Hashemite Court, 1996-1998.

Mr. Al-Khasawneh has represented Jordan at 18 sessions of the General Assembly of the United Nations (The Sixth (Legal) Committee) since 1976, and was Jordan's alternate representative on the Security Council, 1981-1982. He was a member of most Jordanian delegations to meetings of the Arab League, the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries and the Organization of the Islamic Conference held in the years 1980-1988. From 1991 to 1994, he was a member of, and Legal Adviser to, the Jordanian delegation to the peace negotiations in the Middle East.

In the field of the codification and progressive development of international law, Mr. Al-Khasawneh represented Jordan at the following conferences and committees:

Ad Hoc Committee on the Drafting of an International Convention against the Taking of Hostages, 1977-1980.

United Nations Conference on Succession of States in Respect of Treaties, Second Session, 1978.

United Nations Conference on Succession of States in Respect of State Property, Archives and Debts, 1982.

PARRA-ARANGUREN, Gonzalo

(Venezuela)

[Original: Spanish]

Gonzalo Parra-Aranguren was born in Caracas on 5 December 1928. He obtained a degree in political science from the Central University of Venezuela, graduating summa cum laude (1950); he then took a postgraduate course at the Inter-American Law Institute, New York University, to obtain a Master's degree in comparative law and jurisprudence (1950-1951); in 1955 he obtained a Doctor of Laws degree ("Doktor iuris") cum laude from the Ludwig-Maximileans-Universität in Munich, Germany.

He is a professor at the Central University of Venezuela, where he has been teaching a course in private international law since 1956; he has also taught that same course at Andrés Bello Catholic University in Caracas since 1957.

He was a judge in the Second Court of First Instance (commercial matters), federal district and state of Miranda, located in Caracas (1958-1971), and was first associate judge (1988-1992) in the Chamber of Cassation (civil, commercial and labour matters) of the Supreme Court of Justice. In 1992, he was elected alternate judge. He has acted as arbitrator, both in Venezuela and abroad, in the latter case regarding private international commercial matters; on several occasions he has testified in foreign courts as an expert on Venezuelan law.

He was a member of the commission of inquiry appointed in 1985 by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office to consider the implementation by the Federal Republic of Germany of the ILO Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention (1958, No. 111); the report was submitted in 1986, but he did not endorse its recommendations.

He has been a member of the national group for Venezuela at the Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague since 1985.

He was a member of the legislative committees that drafted the section on Venezuelan nationality in connection with the drafting of the Constitution approved in 1961; the draft law on regulations on private international law (1963); and its subsequent revision in 1965; and revised the sections of the Commercial Code dealing with credit instruments and bankruptcy respectively (1963-1965).

He has been a member of the Legal Advisory Committee of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1984-present) and in 1990 was named to the Legal Advisory Council of the National Congress.

In 1966, he was elected a member of the Academy of Political and Social Sciences of Caracas and was President of the Academy from 1993 to 1995. He is a member of the Institute of International Law (elected in 1979); a corresponding member of the Uruguayan International Law Association (1978); a corresponding member of the Argentine International Law Association (1981); a corresponding member of the National Academy of Law and Social Sciences of Córdoba, Argentine Republic (1982); an honorary fellow of the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation of Granada, Spain (1994); a corresponding member of the Mexican Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation corresponding to that of Spain (1994); and an honorary fellow of the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation, Madrid (1994).

He was a member of the Governing Council of the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT) from 1988 to 1993.

He has been on the editorial board of Revista del Colegio de Abogados del Distrito Federal, Caracas, on several occasions; has been a member of the editorial board of the Revista de la Facultad de Derecho de la Universidad Católica Andrés Bello, Caracas, since its establishment; was a member of the Editorial Board of the journal Actas Procesales del Derecho Vivo, Caracas; is on the Advisory Board of the Revista de Derecho Mercantil, Caracas; and, since 1987, has been a correspondent for the Netherlands International Law Review.

He taught the general course on private international law at the Hague Academy of International Law, 1988, and has given lectures abroad: in Curaçao, at the commemoration of the centenary of the introduction of codification and establishment of the Court of Justice (1969); at the course on international law (Rio de Janeiro, 1978, 1979, 1982, 1988 and 1992), organized by the Inter-American Juridical Committee and the Fundación Gétulio Vargas; at the Hague Academy of International Law, on "Recent Developments in Conflict of Laws Conventions in Latin America" (1979); at the International Law Days in Salamanca, Spain (November 1992); at the seminar on principles for international commercial contracts (Rome, December 1993); at the study encounter on law journals and books to promote unity of the Latin American legal system (Rome, December 1993); at the Eighth World Conference of the International Society of Family Law (Cardiff, England, June 1994); at the Congress on Children on the Move, organized by the Netherlands Committee of the International Year of the Family in collaboration with the Hague Conference on Private International Law (October 1994); and at the International Seminar on Adoption, an Act of Love, organized by the Instituto Colombiano de Bienestar Familiar (Bogotá, June 1995).

He was Co-Chairman of the Committee on Private International Law at the 16th meeting of the Inter-American Bar Association (Caracas, 1969). He submitted a paper at the first Latin American International Law Day at the Andrés Bello Catholic University (Caracas, 1979) and at the twelfth congress of the Instituto Hispano-Luso-Americano de Derecho Internacional (Mérida, Venezuela, 1980).

He represented Venezuela at the International Association of Legal Science and the German Society for Comparative Law (Treveris, Federal Republic of Germany, 1961); and at the third meeting of the Joint Venezuelan-Spanish Commission (Madrid, 1974).

In the western hemisphere, he represented Venezuela at the first Inter-American Specialized Conference on Private International Law (CIDIP-I, Panama, 1975), where he was Vice-Chairman of the Second Committee; at the second such Conference (CIDIP-II, Montevideo, 1979), where he was Chairman of the Second Committee; at the third and fourth such Conferences (held, respectively, in La Paz in 1984, and Montevideo in 1989), where he was Chairman of the Second

Committee; and at the fifth such Conference (Mexico City, 1994), where he was Chairman of the First Committee.

He was a member of the Committee of Experts which met in Washington, D.C. in 1980 in preparation for the Third Inter-American Specialized Conference on Private International Law (CIDIP-III) and of the Committee of Experts which met at Tucson, Arizona, in 1993 in preparation for the Fifth Inter-American Specialized Conference on Private International Law (CIDIP-V).

He represented Venezuela at the Hague Conference on Private International Law: thirteenth session (1976-1977); fourteenth session (1980); fifteenth session (1984); special session (1985); sixteenth session (1988); Special Commission to prepare for the seventeenth session (1990-1992); seventeenth session (1993); working group and Special Commission (April and October 1994, respectively) to study the application of the Convention of 1993 to minors who are refugees; and the Special Commission (second meeting, June 1995) on the protection of minors and incompetent adults. He was elected one of the five Vice-Chairmen at the fifteenth and sixteenth sessions.

He was Rapporteur of the Special Commission and of the seventeenth session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law and, in pursuance of those functions, prepared the preliminary report (1992) and the explanatory report on the Convention on Protection of Children and Cooperation in respect of Inter-country Adoption of 29 May 1993.

He has published several books and numerous articles on the law of nationality, private international law, in the strict sense, and international civil procedural law in Venezuelan and foreign journals.

In 1996 he was elected as a judge of the International Court of Justice to complete the term of Judge Ándrés Aguilar.
